Two Powerful Tools For Securing Supernatural Intervention by Ngozi Nwoke

What can one use to secure supernatural intervention? Human beings are limited and are constantly searching for ways to become unlimited in life. This world is full of challenges, many of which are beyond what you and I can handle even if we try. But there is a higher power that we can connect to and these challenges will become walk-overs. This article gives two powerful tools for connecting to divine intervention.

"And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten" - 2 Chronicles 20:22 (KJV)

"And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony..."
-Revelations 12:11 (KJV)

God is the supreme source of intervention. His power supersedes every other power. He manifests this power on men through His son Jesus Christ.

As much as God desires to always come to our aid, we often limit Him by the environment we create around us. We create this repulsive environment with our wrong choices of words and actions. Conducive environment for God is created with two powerful tools, namely: praise and testimonies.

God inhabits the praises of His people. Singing praises unto God attracts Him anytime and anywhere. Praise creates a joyful environment. And when you are joyful, your sensitivity is enhanced. You will be sensitive enough to pick the wisdom words from God for victory over the challenge at hand.

Praise takes your mind off the problem and focuses it on God, the source of supernatural intervention. It recounts God's power, greatness and ability. God's name is exalted when we praise Him. This gladdens God and provokes His intervention.

Likewise, testimonies exalt God's name and His faithfulness. God appears wherever He is exalted. Testimonies are proofs that God is the almighty one. Also, it proves that God does what he says He would do. Testimonies give birth to other testimonies by building up the faith of the hearer(s).

When you recount your testimonies of past divine interventions, your faith is increased to provoke God's help again. The present challenge that was like a mountain to you suddenly becomes flat before you. Every fear and doubt disappears from you.

Many times I have engaged these two powerful tools and my experiences with God's interventions have been great. Sometimes the supernatural intervention is immediate. Other times, it takes a while but never late. I have made the use of praise and testimonies my lifestyle. It has given me peace and I am sure of a glorious future no matter the challenges today. Every day has become better than yesterday for me.
