The Lord delivered me from drugs and a life on the streets, homelessness and horrors that no one should ever have to see. He loves you enough to deliver you too !

I have been saved since i was 23 years old ... but only just recently started walking with Jesus DAILY and allowing Him control over every aspect of my life

I have always loved the Lord, even during my most sinful moments in life, but God wanted more from me...little did I know.

I, along with so many others, made bad choices in my life, that led me down many roads that opened up demonic doors to my life ... I was in a violent domestic relationship for seven years (all my relationships were not good ones for me)

I toyed with drugs and the occult for years until I got hooked on cocaine when i was 41 years of age, and I was on the streets, homeless, for almost 6 years (2009).

I know how it feels to be abused, abandoned and hopeless...God delivered me from ALL those things last year after I asked Him to one day when I was walking down the street: so tired I could barely stand up, with nowhere to go and lie down to rest and with no money to buy food to eat..I simply said "Father, I am sooo tired please take this away from me" ~ and two weeks later He did.

I ended up in a relationship that wasn't good for me, but God used that relationship and person to get me off the streets and drugs, but I had to let that person go, and we have since parted ways because he wasn't the right person for me... all I want to do now, is make God smile ;) because i made Him sad for sooo long.

There are other "melodie's" out there He told me, bring them home to Me. That is what i am called to do ... to show and teach them His word and to let them know that no matter what their lifestyle may be :He loves them ... all He needs is a willing heart.

□ THANK YOU JESUS □

God has led me to an amazing and wonderful man that treats me with the utmost respect and like a queen ... and who is my very best friend ;)0)

My God certainly supplies ALL my needs ... and although i am not where i need to be yet (i am in the pruning stages) I know that I am NOT where i used to be (thank You Father) ... all He needs is a willing heart □ remember that !
