

A Religious Fanatic

Written by admin

Friday, 24 January 2014 06:57 - Last Updated Friday, 24 January 2014 07:35

Are You a Religious Fanatic

by Pam Ford Davis

Do people call you a religious fanatic behind your back? Many are okay with us attending church but think we go too far when we share our faith. It is as if our verbal witness might somehow cause emotional harm. We are quickly losing our religious freedoms; the right to assemble may be reality soon. A sense of urgency is building.... Jesus "redeemed" me from the bondage of sin.

"Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy (Psalm 107:2 K.J.V)."

I have new life in Christ Jesus; I say so humbly, with thanksgiving and wholehearted praise! It may be I need additional fanatical faith to enable me to share the gospel. The lost do not reject us personally nearly as much as the Savior we serve.

"The interval between the decay of the old and the formation and establishment of the new constitutes a period of transition which must always necessarily be one of

A Religious Fanatic

Written by admin

Friday, 24 January 2014 06:57 - Last Updated Friday, 24 January 2014 07:35

uncertainty, confusion, error, and wild and fierce fanaticism".~ John C. Calhoun

With God all things are possible! Published articles in Mature Living Magazine, Secret Place, Daily Devotionals for the Deaf, Light from the Word Daily Devotional. Available now in book store: FORGET-ME-NOT DAILY DEVOTIONAL
<http://ebooks.faithwriters.com/ebook-details.php?id=520>

Article Source: <http://www.faithwriters.com> - CHRISTIAN WRITERS