and wisdom on how to enjoy a trouble-free relationship.

In the presence of God, you are first healed and empowered to extend that healing to the troubled relationship. In God's presence, your faults and negative input to that relationship is revealed to you. The real challenge and the source of it (devil) are made known to you, the blaming syndrome is destroyed and the desire to make the relationship work comes on you.

The need for you to abide in the Lord's presence consistently cannot be over emphasized. Dwelling in His presence gives you strength and joy to draw from God's well of unlimited solutions. It enables you to identify the footsteps of the enemy and to avoid giving him any room to operate in your relationships.

Every troubled relationship has a solution in the healing secret of God's presence. No matter the challenge, God has the answer and He delivers it to you as you dwell in His presence. In the presence of God, you acknowledge your limitations and the unlimited ability of God to secure your relationships.

Prayer is a nonnegotiable channel for building the Lord's presence around you. Now, dwelling in His presence is not that you will be kneeling down and praying every minute but that you are spiritually minded all the time. It means that you are conscious of His presence all the time and that you are in tune with the Holy Spirit and ready to obey Him any time.

Some time ago, I had a troubled relationship and I was blaming the person involved. When I succeeded in getting into God's presence, I had a mirror picture of the relationship: the cause of it, my contributions to it and the solution. After that, I determined to make it work in spite of the devil. God has really helped in that relationship. I give God praise.

Surely, that troubled relationship is very challenging but the truth is that the healing secret of the presence of God is the answer to it.
